

This image shows a page of handwritten musical notation on aged, yellowed paper. The score is organized into several systems, each consisting of two staves. The notation includes various rhythmic values such as eighth and sixteenth notes, often beamed together in groups. There are several annotations and markings throughout the piece:

- A circled '2.' is written above the second system.
- The word 'tremolo' is written in cursive above the third system.
- At the bottom of the page, the word 'Finis' is written above the first staff of the final system, and 'Alte.' is written above the second staff.

The paper shows signs of age, including some staining and wear at the edges.
