

A large rectangular area containing 15 horizontal musical staves. The staves are empty, with no notes or clefs. The area is enclosed in a decorative border consisting of two parallel lines with a series of small circles between them.