

(7)

Royal Society of Literature, London, Oct. 8th 1834.

Sir,

I have this day had the honour to forward for your acceptance, by favour of His Excellency the Baron Buelow, two copies of the second part of volume the second of the Transactions of the Royal Society of Literature, in which is comprised your valuable memoir on the origin of the Hindoos; and I am directed by the Council respectfully to express their acknowledgements for the contribution of that memoir.

I have likewise to explain, that as it was desirable to avoid all delays, not