

London.

29 Great St. Feb. 13.
1834.

(2)

My dear Sir,

Will you kindly excuse the liberty I take in introducing to you my friend Dr. Boeckh, a very intelligent and well-informed Physician, who on giving up a successful practice in about the space of a few months in Germany with a view of improving his acquaintance with the learning & learned men of your learned country.
As he proposed to visit Bonn on his way to Berlin, I have given him the greatest satisfaction in proffering to him a note of introduction to