

To you: and he will feel himself much flattered if you will have the kindness to introduce him to some of your friends at Bonn. I have had great pleasure in being reputed to read your memoir on the Hindos to the Royal Society of Literature, and the Society is much indebted to you for such a testimony of your regard. It will be printed in the volume of their Transactions, which is now in the press. When may we hope to
