Bonn 12 Botha Row

May 17. 1840.

Dear Sir, I took the liberty some time ago to address you on the subject of a young relative of mine, who was on the point of proceeding to Bonn, to profit of the Instruction at your celebrated and excellent University. Since then circumstances have occurred to render it unlikely that he will pursue that Instruction: I have therefore only to make my apologies for any trouble I may have occasioned you. Will you allow me to profit of the opportunity which has offered, to beg you to send a copy of these letters I have lately addressed to my old friend, to
