My dear Sir

ROYAL ASIATIC SOCIETY,
1 March 1832.

Being, I hope, not unreasonably anxious for the welfare of our Society, I am very desirous of seeing as full an attendance at our GENERAL MEETINGS as possible, and more particularly of those who take an interest in its concerns, and whose presence will be considered as the best evidence of their anxiety for its prosperity, I venture therefore to remind you that our next GENERAL MEETING will be held precisely at Two o'clock on Saturday the 3 day of March, at which I hope to have the honour of seeing you.

I remain
My dear Sir
yours most sincerely

James Haughton
HONORARY SECRETARY.

To

Professor Aug. Wm deschlagel
F.M.S. A.S.

P. S. On the other side you will find a List of the Days for the GENERAL MEETINGS for this Session.
