My Dear Schlegel

The Beier is the Son of
W. Ferrier the English Consul at Rotterdam
He is attracted to Bonn by your Fame & is I believe desirous of availing himself of your private Assistance as a Pupil in your House while He attends the lectures in the University. . . From my Regard & Respect for Mr. Ferrier I should esteem any kind reply that you could shew his Son a Favor to myself.

I am happy in any Opportunity of recalling myself to your Memory & of assuring you that I shall ever retain
