

17

19

7

I cannot tell you how much I have very much regretted not being able to see you this morning before you left us, but I sincerely hope that I may have that pleasure when I go to Town next week. The very great pleasure & gratification that you have conferred by your visit here is beyond what I can attempt to express. May I hope that