

terminate the separation from his family - he sighs for his own home - and I trust next year will restore him to us - He often talks of you - often recollects the pleasant day we spent at Bonn & to the pleasure we enjoyed in your visits to Göttingen I often wish that we may again have the gratification of your society - Your carriage & favourite horses are still a theme with Lady Chatterton her wonder is still undiminished that such an equipage so well appointed should exist in Germany

You already know our friend Mr Wharrell - but I am sure you will be delighted by increasing knowledge of him - How much I should like to be present at some of your conversations It is very regrettable that he did not go up the Rhine last summer - instead
