Dear Sir

I hasten to reply to your letter of the 19th which I received yesterday in which I read with concern of the affliction and trouble with which you have been oppressed. - I lament that the arrangement I have made should be a burden upon my sons Academics studies. I am therefore my dear Sir to advise him how he may best by private study remedy this evil - and be so good to draw upon me, directed to the woods & forests as heretofore, for any sum not exceeding One Hundred Pounds, that you shall deem amply sufficient to meet
