

142

104

My dear Sir.

Mr W. Lloyd arrived this morning and would have done himself the pleasure of calling upon you, but that he was very much fatigued. He however begs to send you the latest News-paper which he brought from London, as you will be interested by it, from the late disturbances in England.

With our compliments

Remain

Yours sincerely
J. W. Lloyd

Star Hotel.
Aug: 24th 1842.

491