My dear Mr. Schlegel

Here I am near 5000 feet above the sea enjoying as fine a climate as can be desired at this hot season. The thermometer Fahrenheit is never above ~~75~~ 75 to day as low as 62 - Here I received an account of all your kindness to my family when near Bonn, for which accept my sincere thanks. - I have nothing to regret - but that I was not of the party. But the day will come, when I shall visit the professor & offer my homage to him in his seat of wisdom & learning.

Among other accounts I have one of Your oriental room - & as I too continue to live in Your memory I send a few trifles through Mess^{rs} Treutzel & Wurz to whom I enclose this letter. There is a Babylonian brick, an ornamented Persian Mst & one small parcel containing 6 silver coins 3 copper coins & 2 rings from Persia & of which I pray Your acceptance.

I hope soon to obtain a copy of the Ramayana from Gujerat & I shall send You some copies of our
