

Dear Sir,
 I find from Sir Alexander Johnston that we are to relinquish all hope of hearing you further from. I do not with great regret for few people know so well as I
 do what we lose.
 Sir R. if I tell me
 you go this week in that case I am sure
 you must have some thing else to do than