

53.
170 Strand London

Monday (Post office)

18 Aug. 1826

Dear Sir

I take the liberty of introducing to you my friend Dr.
 Stacheli a Swiss of St. Gallen, whom I have known these five years, and hold in the highest esteem as a Scholar and a Gentleman. — He has been some time now in England as Tutor in the family of General Gubbins, and as Mr. Boste has given up Bookselling, he thinks there is an opening for a young man in that department of business. — He speaks & writes English like an Englishman, and you will be able to judge how far he is likely to be a proper organ for conveying to Englishmen a knowledge of the best productions of Germany. — I have a