

to Professor Schlegel

Sir

Having repeatedly read, & with increased benefit & satisfaction at every per-usal, your fine, & indeed I may truly say, your incomparable work, on Dramatic Literature, I am desirous of signifying my esteem and admiration, by dedicating if not displeasing, the enclosed Tragedy to me, who has done so much honour to the Genius of England. This Tragedy it is my intention to publish in London next