

spring; but I shall not put it to press, till I have the honour of hearing from you. It is not impossible, but that you might be pleased to throw out a hint for its Improvement. #

I have taken the liberty of reading, also, a work written by me, some time since; & beg to assure you, that should ^{you} be so kind, as to permit it to occupy a vacant space in your library, I should be highly gra-

I hope you will be pleased to excuse this presumption.
