

135

94

94

British and Foreign Institute

London Dec 19. 1843

Sir

I have the honor to announce to you that the Committee of the British and Foreign Institute, have this day elected you by an unanimous vote, an Honorary Member of this Association, for Life, in testimony of their high admiration of your talents and attainments, and as a just tribute to your eminent character, as one of the greatest living ornaments to the literature of Europe

49