

[4000.]

A List of the
ANNUALS AND OTHER ILLUSTRATED WORKS

FOR 1843, supplied to the Booksellers of Germany on the following terms by Messrs Longman & Co. in London.

Leipsic: T. O. Weigel.

	Ordinair.	Netto.		Ordinair.	Netto.
	£. s. d.	£. s. d.		£. s. d.	£. s. d.
The Picturesque Annual—A Winter in Paris. By M. Jules Janin. Royal 8vo. illustrated with about 18 splendidly engraved Plates, from the designs of the celebrated French painter, M. Eugene Lami	1	1 0	—	0	16 0
The Keepsake: a Series of beautifully engraved Plates of Historical Subjects, Portraits, and Landscapes. Edited by the Countess of Blessington. Royal 8vo.	1	1 0	—	0	16 0
The Book of Beauty: a Series of Portraits of the Women of England the most distinguished for their Beauty and Rank. Edited by the Countess of Blessington. Royal 8vo.	1	1 0	—	0	16 0
The Friendship's Offering. 12mo.	0	12 0	—	0	9 6
The Forget-Me-Not. 12mo.	0	12 0	—	0	9 6
Fisher's Drawing-Room Scrap-Book. 4to.	1	1 0	—	0	17 0
—Juvenile Scrap-Book. Post 8vo.	0	8 0	—	0	6 6
Cruikshank's Comic Almanack. 12mo.	0	2 6	—	0	2 0
Thomson's Seasons. Edited by Bolton Corney, Esq. With 75 Illustrations on Wood, from designs by the first Artists. Bound in a new style, in cloth, gilt top	1	1 0	—	0	16 0
— bound in morocco, by the best binders	1	16 0	—	1	7 0
Illuminated History of the Eglington Tournament.—The work consists of a Series of Representations of the Principal Scenes of this splendid Pageant, including a View of Eglington Castle, with the Procession, Tilting, Melée, Banquet, Ball, and other circumstances connected with the progress of the Tournament; together with a variety of Embellishments representing the Armorial Bearings, Banners, and Armour of the Knights and Esquires, with Costumes of the Ladies. The Illustrations are from Drawings made on the spot by Mr. H. T. Nixon, with the permission of the Earl of Eglington. The descriptive Letterpress, which includes a list of the invited guests, was entrusted to a gentleman long connected with antiquarian literature	5	5 0	—	4	0 0
—printed in colours	6	6 0	—	4	14 6
—large paper, in gold and colours	10	10 0	—	7	17 6
The Gems of Stuart Newton, R. A.; with a Brief Memoir, and Descriptive Illustrations, by Henry Murray. Imperial 4to. with 11 Plates	2	2 0	—	1	11 6
Oliver's Picturesque Scenery of the French Pyrenees, in 26 Plates, royal folio, lithographed by Haghe, Boys, Bourne, Allom, Dodgson, Barnard, and Walton, from the original drawings by M. Oliver	4	4 0	—	3	3 0
—coloured and mounted, to represent the original drawings	10	10 0	—	7	17 6
Twenty-six Views of Interiors and Exteriors of Haddon Hall, Derbyshire, the Seat of his Grace the Duke of Rutland. By Douglas Morison. Half-bound morocco	4	4 0	—	3	3 0
—coloured like the original drawings	10	10 0	—	7	17 6
The Recent Operations of the British Forces in Affghanistan; consisting of Views of the most beautiful Scenery through which the Army passed, with Figures illustrative of memorable Events which occurred during the Campaign, and descriptive of the Manners and Costumes of the Natives. Drawn on Stone by Louis Haghe, Esq., of a uniform size with the beautiful work on Belgium and Germany, from the original and highly-finished drawings executed on the spot by James Atkinson, Esq. Superintending Surgeon of the Army					