The Times

LONDON, WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 28, 1934

LIFE IN A NAZI CAMP

A FARM STUDENT'S EXPERIENCE

THE MEANING OF "HELP"

From a German Correspondent

The last three years I was a pupil at [illegible] School founded at W[illegible] Königswüsterhausen, in 1929 by [illegible] Agricultural Committee. I am [illegible] my family are poo[illegible] school had not [illegible] board and lodgin[illegible] Besides, the [illegible] best in G[illegible] was [illegible]ging to [illegible] equipmen[illegible] had to learn [illegible] field of barley [illegible] farm driver. In [illegible] work on the farm, I le[illegible] typing. This year they [illegible] marks for my [illegible] director of [illegible] ol. I [illegible] new, and so we [illegible] farming, course[illegible] pentry, tailorin[illegible] each branch t[illegible] order. [illegible] None of us [illegible] re only interested [illegible] things grow[illegible] ome S.A. m[illegible] inspect the [illegible] would do [illegible] labour [illegible] till June 20[illegible] got [illegible] at 5.30 and [illegible] chickens. W[illegible] I [illegible] saw all my [illegible] and the [illegible] ng in a li[illegible] fr[illegible] through [illegible] men. I was [illegible] we were fo[illegible] which the Nazis had [illegible] the [illegible] had to leave all [illegible] we did not hurry [illegible] the l[illegible] beaten with [illegible] rubber [illegible] S.A. Then the S.A. [illegible] motor-cars while we [illegible] each of which was armed with a [illegible] We were packed tight, 30 S.A. [illegible] of us in each lorry. The S.A. [illegible] from Berlin and belonged to three [illegible] chts of the Storkow troop, the 13/208, 1/207, and the 75/5. They were all heavily armed.

BUSINESS OFFERS

DIRECTORS AN

BUSINESSES FO

ST

Konzentrationslager Oranienburg

von

S.A. Sturmbannführer

Schäfer Sta 208.

Lagerkommandant