

SPECIAL PART.

A COLLECTION OF EXAMPLES.

SUMMARY.

§ 70. I confine myself to a description of the most important ore-districts of Europe, without particular reference to their geographical distribution. The general order described will be as follows:

1. Germany, commencing with the Erzgebirge.
 2. The Carpathian countries; Galicia, Transylvania, Hungary, Banat, and Servia.
 3. The Alps in their entire extent.
 4. Italy.
 5. France.
 6. Spain.
 7. Great Britain.
 8. Scandinavia.
 9. European Russia.
-