

CONTENTS OF VOL. II.

CHAPTER I.

Declining school of Giottoesques — Jacopo di Casentino and Daddi — Spinello of Arezzo; studies at Florence, and afterwards settles in his native place; is invited to Pisa and Sienna — His assistants and followers, Niccolò di Pietro Gerini and Lorenzo di Niccolò Gerini — Parri Spinelli — The three Bicci Page 1 to 33

CHAPTER II.

Revival of art in Sienna — Fundamental difference between Siennese and Florentine art — Duccio — Ugolino and Segna 34 to 59

CHAPTER III.

Siennese art continued.— Simone Martini: His frescoes at Sienna, and altarpieces at Pisa, Orvieto, and Naples — Chapel of S. Martin at Assisi — Life in Sienna — Employment by the State — Alleged visit to Rome and Pisa — Andrea di Florentia, and discussion as to the authorship of frescoes in S. M. Novella at Florence — Simone retires to Avignon — His frescoes there in the papal palace — His death 60 to 100

CHAPTER IV.

Simone's assistants, cotemporaries, and followers — Lippo Memmi, Barna and Luca di Thomé, Lippo Vanni, and Pellicciaio 101 to 116
a 2