

CONTENTS OF VOL. I.

CHAPTER I.

Art to the close of the sixth century — The catacombs, and earliest mosaics — Early Christian sculpture and miniatures .. Page 1 to 40

CHAPTER II.

Italian art from the seventh to the thirteenth century — The latest catacomb paintings — Decline of art in mosaics — Neo-Greek influence at Rome — Continuation of the decline at Rome — Miniatures of the eighth century — S. Elia of Nepi and its wall-paintings — Early art in South Italy, chiefly at Capua, — on the coasts of Sicily — Miniatures of the Siculo-Norman period, and cotemporary Italian works of the same kind — Mosaics of the twelfth to the fourteenth century — Wall-paintings at Subiaco, at Parma, and in the Baptistery of Florence — Jacobus Torriti 41 to 95

CHAPTER III.

The Cosmati — Their works at Civita Castellana, Anagni, Rome — Pietro Cavallini 96 to 113

CHAPTER IV.

Sculpture in Central Italy from the twelfth century — The forerunners of Niccola Pisano at Pistoia, Lucca, Pisa, and Parma — Niccola Pisano, and his assistants — Earlier and cotemporary art in South Italy — Works of Niccola, of Arnolfo, of Fra Guglielmo, of Giovanni Pisano — Orvieto cathedral 114 to 154