

CHAPTER V.

Decline of painting in Central Italy in the thirteenth century — Crucifixes
—Painters of Lucca, Pisa, and Sienna — Guido — Painters of Arezzo; Margaritone and Montano .. .. . Page 155 to 194

CHAPTER VI.

Early Florentine art — Tafi — Cimabue .. .. . 195 to 209

CHAPTER VII.

S. Francesco of Assisi — Works of Cimabue and Giotto, in the upper church — Gaddo Gaddi and Rusutti .. .. . 210 to 233

CHAPTER VIII.

Giotto: His early years — His wall-paintings in the lower church of Assisi, and at Rome — His return to Florence — and frescoes of the Palazzo del Podestà .. .. . 234 to 270

CHAPTER IX.

Giotto: Story of the O — He engages to go to Avignon, but remains in Italy — He paints at Padua, in the Arena, and at S. Antonio; at Verona, Ferrara, and Ravenna .. .. . 271 to 295

CHAPTER X.

Giotto: Florentine works; in Santa Croce, for the Peruzzi, Bardi, Baron-celli, and other chapels; in Ognissanti — Anecdotes .. 296 to 316

CHAPTER XI.

Giotto: His visit to Naples — State of art in that capital — Early painters:
Simone — Frescoes in S. Chiara — Chapel of the Incoronata — Roberto di Oderisio, Gennaro di Cola, and others — Colantonio del Fiore — Nicholaus Tommasi — Final residence of Giotto in Florence — S.
Reparata — Death of Giotto .. .. . 317 to 342

CHAPTER XII.

Giotto's influence on the sculptors of his time — Andrea Pisano, Nino
Pisano, Tommaso, and others .. .. . 343 to 353