

secrates the church di S. Apostolo at Florence in the presence of Roland and Oliver.¹

The only disciple of Cavallini according to Vasari is one Giovanni da Pistoia. Such an artist existed in the fourteenth century at Pistoia and a few lines may be devoted to him at the proper time.

¹ Vas. Proemio. Vol. I. p. 210.