Lincoln Center's Great Performers

Initiated in 1965, Lincoln Center's Great Performers series offers approximately 100 classical and contemporary music performances annually. One of the largest music presentation series in the world, Great Performers runs from October through June with offerings in Lincoln Center's Avery Fisher Hall, Alice Tully Hall, Walter Reade Theater, Clark Studio Theater, Stanley H. Kaplan Penthouse, and other various performance spaces throughout New York City, including the Church of St. Ignatius Loyola and Gerald W. Lynch Theater at John Jay College. In 2005, Great Performers expanded to include presentations in the Rose Theater and The Allen Room at the Time Warner Center at Columbus Circle. The world's outstanding symphony orchestras, vocalists, chamber ensembles, and recitalists are featured in Great Performers, as well as special repertoire-focused festivals, themed series, and educational activities. During the 1998-99 season, Great Performers added a new dimension to the classical music experience through its New Visions series. In productions specially commissioned by Lincoln Center, New Visions offers innovative stage presentations and groundbreaking collaborations among the world's leading directors, choreographers, and classical performers.

Lincoln Center for the Performing Arts, Inc.

Lincoln Center for the Performing Arts (LCPA) serves three primary roles: presenter of artistic programming, national leader in arts and education and community relations, and manager of the Lincoln Center campus. As a presenter of more than 400 events annually, LCPA's series include American Songbook, Great Performers, Lincoln Center Festival, Lincoln Center Out of Doors, Midsummer Night Swing, and the White Light and Mostly Mozart Festivals. The Emmy Award-winning Live From Lincoln Center extends Lincoln Center's reach to millions of Americans nationwide. As a leader in arts and education and community relations, LCPA takes a wide range of activities beyond its halls through the Lincoln Center Institute, as well as offering arts-related symposia, family programming, and accessibility. And as manager of the Lincoln Center campus, LCPA provides support and services for the Lincoln Center complex and its other resident organizations.
