characters, discovered that it was not allied to it, but constituted a distinct species, belonging to the calc genus.

An analysis of Klaproth, which was made some time afterwards, shewed that it was a compound of lime and phosphoric acid.

3. Hauy confiders it to be identical with appatite? and Karsten arranges it a subspecies *.

SIE - T. MORE LAND AND THE STORY THAT AND THE SALES

Further other delan ten mad never its colours and yellowith, Macke and greyills white the same animoliol original state of the following may be deliver having its edges and angles and others.

e. When the truncations on the edges increase

3. When the truncations on the angles incres dispers an odnedron is torned.

detre varieties approach in ferme to the cryfiells in much that the original planes nearly and appears, the garnet dodecaedron, is now to much that the original faces of the cube

* Karstens Tabellen.

4 A 2

SIXTEENTH

during of the by activity.

principal figures:

