

CONTENTS.

CONTENTS.

CHAP. I.

Description of the Surface of the Earth, Page 1

- § 1. Figure of the earth. 2. General structure and composition of the crust of the earth. 3. General distribution of the inequalities on the surface of the earth, and their composition. 4. Situation of petrifications. 5. Different classes or degrees of terrestrial inequalities. 6. On continents and islands, and the proportion of land to water on the surface of the earth. 7. General description of high land and low land. 8. Parts of which high land is composed. 9. Alpine land. 10. Mountainous land. 11. Hilly land. 12. Local situation of the constituent parts of high land. 13. Mountain-plains. 14. Low land. 15. Particular description of alpine land. 16. Parts of which single mountains are composed. 17. Points of view under which mountain-groupes may be considered. 18. Mountain-groupes, in regard to length. 19. 20. and 21. Mountain-groupes, in regard to height. 22. Mountain-groupes, in regard to breadth. 23. Mountain-groupes, in regard to the form and shape of their mountains. 24. Mountain-

a

tain-