

Handwritten text in a Gothic script, likely a Latin or German manuscript. The text is arranged in several lines and is significantly faded and mirrored, suggesting it is bleed-through from the reverse side of the page. The words are difficult to decipher due to the fading and the script's complexity.

Stilleben

Handwritten text at the bottom of the page, possibly a signature or a date. The text is faint and difficult to read, but appears to be arranged in a single line.
