

Leipziger Börsen-Course am 12. Mai 1876.

Main table containing financial data, exchange rates, and stock prices. It is organized into several columns: 'Wechsel' (Exchange Rates), 'Deutsche Fonds' (German Funds), 'Kassen-Aktien und Prioritäten' (Cash Stocks and Bonds), 'Ausländ. Fonds' (Foreign Funds), and 'Bank-Bisconti' (Banking). Each entry includes details like the instrument name, its value, and the current market price.

Section titled 'Sorten' (Types) listing various types of banknotes and their specifications, such as 'Vollwicht. Preuss. Friedrichsdor' and '20 Francs-Stücke'.

Bank-Bisconti, Amsterdam 2 1/2 - Brüssel 2 1/2 - London 3 1/2 - Paris 4 1/2

Stund und Betrag von 2. Vgl. in Leipzig.

Vertical text on the right edge of the page, including the word 'No' and other illegible characters.