

Leipziger Börsen-Course am 20. Januar 1888.

Main table containing various market data including bank notes, exchange rates, and stock prices for different companies and regions.

Multiple columns of news articles and reports, including financial news, local events, and international news from various cities like Berlin, Hamburg, and London.