Non sunt adeò obscura argumenta quæ R. D. T. animum & affectionem in diu-inum illud Musices studium & opera declarant, vt maiorem adhuc demonstrationem desiderare videantur, Neq; R. D. T. nomen, virtutes & laudes, vsquequaq; ita incognitę sunt, vt per me demum elucidari, nec ita tenues, vt per me amplificari pos-sint aut debeant. Nec ego ita ignarus sum, vt quid R. D. T. pro sua in me beneuolentia & animi promptitudine velim possim aut debeam, vel nesciam, aut ingratus quin non præ-stem, Solent alij vt sua venditent, aut sese quoquomodo ijs quibus suos labores inscribunt, mira-biliter causas affingere, Ego libere ago, nec propter alias rationes, quam quas supra dixi, & ve-ras agnosco. R. D. T. hunc selectissimarum sacrarum cantionum fasciculum, nunc primum in lucem æditum, inscribere & dedicare volui, nihil planè subdubitans, quin eo animo, quem exhibet & quo me hucusq; complectitur, hanc candidi animi mei significationem sit acceptura, atq; ad earundem cantionum memoriam perpetuandam locum in eius bibliotheca, quàm summis impensis & laboribus ad commune patriæ commodum, multifaria librorum suppellectile instru-xit, & indies magis augere studet, haud ipsis denegatura, Namq; & R. D. T. in Deum pietas & meritorum gratia, quibus plus (quam alij laudibus) pascitur, bonorum omnium de eadem constans opinio & expectatio, aliud non possent admittere: Viue itaq; & Vale fœliciter. Pragæ, ex
