

The figure is a historical map from 1806 titled "ACCURATE Geographische Charte der Gräffischen Stolberg". The map shows the territories of several German states and districts, including:

- BRAUNSCHWEIGISCHE: Located at the top center.
- GRENZE DES FÜRSTENTHUMS ANHALD: A green-shaded area in the upper right.
- GRENZE DES FÜRSTENTHUMS GRUBENHAGEN: A yellow-shaded area in the lower left.
- SCHWARZBURGISCHE: A pink-shaded area in the center.
- GRENZE: A black-shaded area at the bottom.
- AMMT STOLBERG: Shown in the lower left corner.
- AMMT HONNSTEIN: Shown in the center-left.
- AMMT EBERSBURG: Shown in the lower right corner.
- AMMT WOLFSBERG: Shown in the far right margin.
- AMMT BERENRÖDA: Shown in the upper right margin.
- AMMT HÖHNSTEIN: Shown in the lower left margin.
- AMMT QUESTENBERG: Shown in the lower right margin.
- AMMT ROSSLA: Shown in the far right margin.

The map includes a legend in the top left corner with symbols for towns, roads, forests, and other geographical features. It also features decorative scrollwork at the bottom.