CONCERTO
IX.

This image shows a page of handwritten musical notation for a concerto. The page is numbered 81 in the top left corner. The tempo is marked as 'Vivace.' at the top center. The title 'CONCERTO IX.' is written in large, bold letters on the left side. The music is arranged in four systems, each consisting of two staves. The notation is dense, with many notes and rests, and includes various musical symbols such as clefs, time signatures, and dynamic markings. The paper is aged and shows some staining and wear.

This image shows the continuation of the handwritten musical notation from the previous page, located on the right-hand page of the spread. It features several systems of staves with musical notes and rests, continuing the piece.
