

71. Government of Brazil.—The Pyrotechnical Laboratory of Campinho.

FUSES AND AMMUNITION.

Report.—A fine display of fuses and small-arm ammunition.

72. The Okhta Powder Mills, near St. Petersburg, Russia.

GUNPOWDER.

Report.—Commended for excellent quality of gunpowder manufactured at this establishment.

73. Pigou, Wilks, &amp; Laurence, London, England.

GUNPOWDER OF VARIOUS DESCRIPTIONS.

Report.—All the gunpowders manufactured by this firm are of excellent quality.

74. V. T. Unge, Stockholm, Sweden.

DISTANCE WATCH FOR MILITARY USE.

Report.—Commended for portability, ingenuity, and simplicity of design.

75. L. Mairlot &amp; P. Heuse, Fraipont, near Liège, Belgium.

DAMASCUS GUN BARRELS.

Report.—Commended for fine materials and workmanship; very low prices.

76. E. Heuse, Lemoine, &amp; Co., Nessonvaux, near Liège, Belgium.

DAMASCUS GUN BARRELS.

Report.—Commended for fine materials and workmanship; very low prices.

77. Kniaze Mikhailovsky Steel Works, Government of Orenburg, Russia.

GUN BARRELS.

Report.—Commended for excellence.

78. Government of Tunis.

WEAPONS AND EQUIPMENTS.

Report.—A highly interesting display of antique arms, including pistols, guns, swords, and daggers; also splendid embroidered saddles and horse furniture.

79. Government of Egypt.

WEAPONS AND EQUIPMENTS.

Report.—Commended for a fine display of weapons and richly-ornamented dromedary, horse, and donkey saddles, and equipments; more particularly for the articles exhibited from the National Museum of Cairo.