England & have heard nothing of her since. Last week I got a kind little note from her - & expect to enjoy my much - I do so enjoy contact with well bred English I intentionally avoid such specimens of my country men & women as are seen here! They have founded a lawn tennis club here, at the gating rink - & if after moesgation I find it nice I shall join. By the bye - you know last summer I took over the remnants of poor Johnny's fiddle which I examined. It was traced in various places, thick with dirt, & had the neck & various joints were wanting. I recollected distinctly that for it & the box together & the bow he paid £5 - I showed it to the man in authority here who said

How we did not -
I had pressed it - having been told it -
