SUPPRESSING THE HEADSMAN.

The Republican majority in the French Parliament has taken a remarkable step in relation to the question of capital punishment. Public agitations and parliamentary debates are all very well in their way, but they take much time. A short cut to definite results has been discovered by French theorists. They first got the Budget Committee packed with a majority of their own way of thinking, and then, on the motion of the reporter for the estimates of the Ministry of Justice, they got a vote passed suppressing at a stroke the credit for the pay of the executioners and their assistants. It will now be for the Government to secure, if they can, the reinstatement of the credit by a vote of the whole House—a difficult process.

LATEST TELEGRAMS.

Rio de Janeiro, August 13. The Pan-American Congress has passed the following resolutions: that the International Bureau of American Republics shall be reorganised; that naturalized subjects shall lose the rights acquired in their adopted country by naturalisation, if they return to their original home and remain there more than two years; that the terms of the existing treaties between the American Republics with regard to pecuniary claims shall be prolonged.

London, August 14. King Edward started this morning for the Continent. His Majesty arrived at Port Victoria shortly after 10 o'clock, and went on board the Royal Yacht "Victoria and Albert" under a Royal salute from the cruisers "Roxburgh" and "Devonshire". The yacht and her escort proceeded to sea for Flushing.

St. Petersburg, August 14. Violent shocks of earthquake were felt last night in Tscharkent and Kapal, in the Government of Semisotschenski.

Cronstadt, August 14. (From a special correspondent.) The Court Martial for the trial of prisoners charged with participation in the recent mutinies began its sittings today. The prisoners will be arraigned in groups.

Libau, August 14. (From a special correspondent.) The police arrested yesterday at the house of a workman a band of 17 persons, on the charge of robbing a mail train.

St. Petersburg, August 14. The report which has been current abroad that the elections for the Duma would be fixed for September, is quite unfounded.

Constantinople, August 14. With reference to statements in the newspapers that the Porte would introduce the 3 per cent increase of the Customs duties on the 1st of September, it is authoritatively stated that the Porte had it in view to do so, but could not because to consent of the Powers has not yet been obtained. The Ambassadors are likely soon to resume the negotiations on this subject.

London, August 14. The correspondent of The Times in Peking telegraphs under date the 12th instant that the British railways in China are being developed in a very unsatisfactory manner, as the Chinese Government are assuming an evasive and obstructive attitude with regard to the five concessions guaranteed on September 1898.

London, August 14. The Standard, in an article on King Edward and Kaiser Wilhelm, says: "it would be unreasonable for Englishmen to take umbrage at the maritime ambition of the Kaiser and his Ministers. We pride ourselves on being an intelligent and good-natured people, and do not wish to quarrel till we have something to quarrel about."
