LATEST TELEGRAMS.

Naples, April 23. The Royal Yacht "Victoria and Albert", with the King and Queen of England on board, left this morning for Palermo, escorted by the cruisers "Suffolk" and "Lancaster".

Berlin, April 23. The new commercial provisorium agreed to between the United States and Germany, which was yesterday considered by the Economic Committee, was, according to the Lokal-anzeiger, adopted after a seven hours' discussion.

Berlin, April 23. The Imperial Bank has lowered the Bank rate by one half per cent to 5 1/2.

Paris, April 23. It is reported from Tunis that the delegate and former Minister M. Maugeot, as he was driving from Susa to Sfax in an automobile, was stoned by some natives. He stopped the carriage, one of the occupants of which had been injured by the stone-throwing, in order to take the names of the assailants; but they assumed such a threatening attitude that he was compelled hurriedly to resume his journey.

Paris, April 23. The Bishop of Orleans, in a letter to his clergy informed them that his claims with reference to participation in the Joan of Arc festival—especially as to the use of crosses in the procession, the holding of divine service in the Place Destournelles, and the exclusion of the freemasons on the part of the communal representatives—had been admitted.

Paris, April 23. After the conclusion of the trial of the former actress Mdle. d'Allemagne the nationalist journalist M. Gaucher attacked the late Secretary of the Cabinet and Ambassador M. Meryel, who in his evidence had accused him of attempts at extortion, and beat him with a stick. The guard of the Court of justice was obliged to interfere to protect M. Meryel from further ill-treatment.

Toulon, April 23. In spite of all attempts to stop the fire in the arsenal, several stores and the workshop for the instruction of torpedo officers were burnt to the ground. For a short time the neighbouring part of the town was in danger. Nearly 20 men of the Navy were injured, three of them severely. The cause of the fire is as yet unknown.

Prague, April 23. The Emperor Franz Josef reviewed the troops of the garrison this morning on the Dejwitz exercise ground. The weather was splendid. The great crowd that had assembled to witness the parade gave His Majesty an enthusiastic reception.

St. Petersburg, April 23. In the middle of the town of Kursk an engineer of the Moscow-Kursk railway was mortally wounded yesterday by 5 revolver shots. One of the perpetrators of the deed, on being followed by the head of the police, shot himself; a second who was pursued by a policeman threw a bomb that, however, failed to explode, and then shot and killed the policeman who continued to pursue him. The murderer escaped.
