

DRESDEN: LOCAL.

With further reference to the proposed formation of an English-speaking Hockey team in Dresden, we are requested to state that, owing to communications received anent the question, the Hon. Sec'y. is willing to consider the applications of ladies if a sufficient number of members apply to form two separate Elevens, one composed of ladies, the other of gentlemen. Please address all communications on this subject to the Hon. Sec'y.: Dr. Robert Grimshaw, Johannstädter Ufer 3, corner Elisenstrasse.

The managing authorities of the Klotzsche-Königswald baths have arranged for an orchestra of their own next season, and their choice has fallen on that conducted by Musikdirektor Hermann Kage, which numbers 36 performers. This new orchestra will give 26 concerts during the season in the Waldpark, Klotzsche. This arrangement should contribute much to the amusement and sociality of the visitors to the baths.

Meanwhile Herr Kage has declared his readiness, in his capacity of Director of the Kurkapelle, to give several concerts during the winter season, for charitable or other objects. The first of these concerts will take place on Thursday next, December 5, at 8 p. m. in the hall of the Kurhaus at Klotzsche-Königswald. The concert will be for the benefit of the Waldpark, and tickets for it, at 50 pf. each, may be obtained from Gebrüder Kaul, cigar dealers, See Strasse, corner of Breite Strasse.

Hermann Ulbrich, Optician, Sidonien Str., corner of Lüttichau Str. 30. Specialist in Eyeglasses. Formerly for 30 years Assistant to Gebrüder Roettig, Court opticians, Prager Strasse.

At the Central Theatre today, Sunday December 1, "Christbaums Wanderschaft", a Christmas Fairy Play in 4 scenes by F. A. Geissler, music by G. Pittrich, will be given at reduced prices, at 3.30 p. m.

In the evening, at the usual prices, "Der kleine Chevalier", an operetta, in 1 act by A. M. Willner, music by H. Berté, will be produced for the first time, with the cast already notified.

The operetta will be preceded by a variety performance, beginning at 8 o'clock, of the new programme with Marcell Salzer, actor; the banjo virtuoso Franco Piper; Carl Bernhard, humourist; O. K. Sato, comic juggler; the Lafaille troupe; and Panita, a lady flautist.

The ticket office will be open all day from 11 a. m.

The firm of Oscar Zscheile, Prager Strasse 13, corner of Ferdinand Strasse, special business for ladies' modern ornaments, fans and fine leather goods, is advertising by circular the opening of its Christmas exhibition. The tastefully decorated windows show a brilliant variety of modern fans and bijouterie, and furnish the buying public with another proof of the business enterprise of the firm above mentioned. Special attention is called to the remarkably choice and elegant finish of the leather goods. All sorts of leather articles, whether for utility or luxury, tempt the customer, particularly the Christmas novelties in the show windows. There is also a great diversity of travelling cases, tastefully fitted up to suit the simplest or most fastidious user, not to mention dressing-cases and work boxes, photograph albums, ladies' bags, &c., all of which make delightful presents. To all these specialties the firm of Oscar Zscheile devotes the greatest attention and endeavours to meet the wishes of individual customers.

One of the oldest shops of the kind in Dresden is that of F. W. Eichler, Trompeter Strasse 6, where wooden utensils of all kinds, useful and ornamental, have been made and sold for the last 40 years, and where such handy articles as small boxes for sending Christmas presents by post can be had or ordered. The shop has just been rebuilt and re-arranged; it is in the same house as the firm G. L. Lippold, long known for its excellent cane trunks.

CONVERSATION IN THE SCHLOSS STRASSE.

Hello Paul! How do you feel after Thursday night's excitement at the Bristol? You look a trifle off colour!

Well, old chap, the fact is that my temporary descent from the water-wagon has shaken me up a bit. What can you prescribe as a tonic?

Why, the natural elixir of life, of course; in other words, the amber-hued nectar supplied at the Stadt Gotha. Come right along and have a glass. I'll guarantee it will fix you up and promptly dissipate your fit of "the blues."

That's a brilliant idea, and here we are at the familiar threshold. Hello! did you see Herr X. just go in?

Why yes! These big artists know that the Stadt Gotha beer is just the thing to settle their nerves and make them fit for the evening's ordeal. Let us go and follow their good example.

MODERN SOCIETY.

Today's Great Thought.—"I believe," says a weekly paper, "if an escaped murderer turned up in London, as long as he had a million a year, and had a hooked nose, he'd be received by the extraordinary crowd that goes by the name of Society."

SAVED HIS BACON.

Individualism in thought is the leading characteristic of the Younger Generation of to-day. "Your mother", said the Bench at East Ham to a small offender, "thinks a couple of strokes of the birch would do you good." "But I don't," said the stripling. He got off.

A FLIGHTY CENTENARIAN.

Mrs. Rose Carter, of Pittsburg, celebrated her 106th birthday, which occurred the other day, by dancing an Irish jig. Whether it was a piece of orange peel or a banana skin we do not know.
