The last twelve months appear to have flown with such amazing rapidity that the ink upon the pen which inscribed our heartiest seasonable wishes to the Record's readers last year seems scarcely dry when we resume it now to repeat the time-honoured phrase:

A Merry Christmas.

It may not be without interest to the increasing circle of our Anglo-American readers to learn that the Record has prospered exceedingly during the year now hastening to its close.

The Berlin issue, inaugurated in October last, has been mutually satisfactory to the English-speaking Colony in that city and to ourselves; in fact, the paper has become almost an indispensable means of inter-communication between those who desire to reach the influential community of English and Americans in Dresden and Berlin and the latter themselves. This assertion is amply endorsed by the undeniable evidence of our advertisement columns, containing a manifold diversity of announcements embracing almost every phase of cosmopolitan residence. Our subscription list is something quite unique of its kind; issues of the Record are despatched to readers in practically every European country, the United States, Canada, Australasia, and even the Far East. Indeed it would appear that everybody who has been a resident of Dresden at one time or another is anxious to be kept posted as to the "goings-on" in the "Saxon Florence," and naturally the Record constitutes the only regular source of this information. This desire to keep in touch with Dresden's affairs is eloquent testimony to the old city's proverbial Gemütlichkeit.

We take this opportunity of again assuring our readers that these columns are always open to them for the purpose of making known social arrangements and the like, it being our desire to make the Record an influential factor, not only in the commercial, but also in the social life of the Anglo-American community. This announcement applies equally, of course, to our many Berlin friends, whose kindly encouragement has done so much towards firmly establishing the paper in that city.

Further, we are always glad to print correspondence upon any subject of general interest or enlightenment, and would request that such communications be addressed to this office, the envelope bearing the word "Local."

Owing to the intervening holidays our next issue will appear on Saturday next.
