

Office:
 Struve Str. 5, I.
 Dresden A.
 Telephone:
 1755.

The Daily Record

Office:
 Struve Str. 5, I.
 Dresden A.
 Telephone:
 1755.

and THE DRESDEN DAILY.

THE FIRST DAILY PAPER IN ENGLISH PUBLISHED IN GERMANY.

№ 833.

DRESDEN, SATURDAY, OCTOBER 31, 1908.

10 PFENNIGS.

The Daily Record is delivered by hand in Dresden, and may be ordered at any Post Office throughout the German Empire. It is published daily, excepting Mondays and days following legal holidays in Dresden.

Monthly Subscription Rates: For Dresden, mark 1.—; for the rest of Germany and for Austria, mark 1.20. For other countries, marks 2.50.

Newly opened: ORIENTAL HOUSE Prager Strasse 37 under Europäischer Hof An extensive clearance sale of stock in hand from dissolved partnership, including Oriental Embroideries, Egyptian Veils, Opera Bags, Embroidered Silk Goods, etc., is now proceeding.

Prager Strasse 35
MÜLLER & C. W. THIEL
 Linen Store
 Saxon Damask
 Under-clothing.

 H. G. B. Peters
 Established 1885.
Furriers Exclusively.
 Desire to inform their patrons and visiting tourists that a very extensive stock of fine Furs, fashioned in the latest Garments, fancy Neckpieces, Muffs, etc. are here to select from:
 Russian Sable, Mink, Marten, Royal Ermine, Chinchilla, Seal, Squirrel, black Persian, Broadtail, Lynx, Fox, Pony, Astrachan, etc., Bear, Skunk, Thibet, etc.
 Skins are imported from the best Fur centres (duty free) in the raw state and made up here, so that prices for the same qualities are more moderate here than in the foreign market.
 52, Prager Strasse, Dresden, opp. Cook's Tourist Bureau.

Extensive choice of hand-made Saxon Damask Table-Bed-Ladies' and Gentlemen's LINEN
Joseph Meyer
 (au petit Bazar)
 Neumarkt 13, opposite the Frauenkirche.

ADOLF BECK
 Ladies' Hairdresser.
 Salons with all modern comforts, for ladies only.
 Special hair treatment by electricity. Massage.
 Telephone 10,049. Christian Strasse 32 Telephone 10,049.

My Clearance Sale of old forms and designs in Dresden China will begin on November 2.
Richard Wehsener, Zinzendorf Strasse 16.

 DRESDEN CHINA
 Own workmanship Lowest prices
 Retail Export Wholesale
A. E. STEPHAN, 4, Reichs Strasse succ. to Helena Wolffsohn Nachf. Leopold Elb.

Owing to the holiday (Reformation Day) tomorrow, our next number will appear on Tuesday morning.

GENERAL NEWS.

NEWS FROM ENGLAND.

THE IMPRISONED AMAZONS.
 (From our own correspondent.)

London, October 29.
 Members of Parliament who sympathise with the female suffrage movement are exerting themselves on behalf of the ladies who were recently sent to Holloway Prison for various terms. In the House of Commons yesterday evening the Home Secretary was asked whether he would consider the possibility of treating three of the imprisoned ladies, Mrs. Drummond, Mrs. Pankhurst, and Miss Pankhurst, as first-class misdemeanants. The plea was supported by such members as Mr. Keir Hardie and Mr. William Redmond, who are always to be found in the front rank of agitators for one form of faddism or another. Mr. Gladstone declared his inability to interfere with the magistrate's decision in this case, and during the ensuing debate the Suffragettes' champions were reminded that it lay in the power of the ladies themselves to secure their instant release merely by giving recognisances of future good behaviour. In the end the Home Secretary flatly declined to accede to the demand of Mr. Keir Hardie that the prisoners should be removed into the first class, a statement which was received with applause.

The Suffragettes attracted considerable attention in the West End yesterday by their novel manner of advertising their Albert Hall meeting this evening. About eleven o'clock an interesting procession left the offices of the Union at Clement's Inn. Miss Maude Joachim, the niece of the late Dr. Joachim, volunteered to further the cause on horseback. Placards were hung from the cruppers bearing the inscription: "Why the Pankhursts are in Holloway. Come to the Albert Hall, Thursday, at eight." As the lady rode up the Strand on her black and bay steed she created considerable stir. She rode some ten miles in all, and at least succeeded in arousing great interest in the meeting this evening.

THE CITY OF LONDON AND THE GERMAN EMPEROR.

London, October 30.
 In his speech of farewell to the City Council yesterday, on the occasion of his retirement from office, the Lord Mayor of London remarked that he looked upon the visit of the German Emperor to the metropolis last November as one of the most memorable events which had occurred during his term of office. He noted with satisfaction that, in a recently published interview, His Majesty had recalled and repeated the assertion made on that occasion that his dearest desire was to live on terms of good friendship with England. Loud applause greeted the Lord Mayor's speech.

NEWS FROM AMERICA.

MR. ROOSEVELT AND KING EDWARD.

Washington, October 28.
 King Edward sent the following telegram to President Roosevelt yesterday:—"I request you to accept my cordial congratulations on the occasion of your birthday, together with my best wishes for your welfare and prosperity." President Roosevelt was 50 yesterday.

UNITED STATES AND JAPAN.

New York, October 29.
 A bellicose lecture was delivered at San Francisco on Tuesday evening by Mr. R. P. Hobson, the well-known naval constructor of "Merrimac" fame. Mr. Hobson, who is an ardent apostle of naval expansion, cautioned his hearers against being lulled into a state of false security by the recent exchange of courtesies between the United States and Japan, and proceeded to contend that the latter country had in no way modified the attitude she had seen fit to take up against this country. "The greeting which she gave our battleships last week," said Mr. Hobson, "was only a ruse." This, of course, is by no means the first speech that the hero of Santiago Harbour has made to the same effect. Though a Democratic Congressman, he is strongly in favour of Mr. Roosevelt's naval programme, and of the maintenance of a permanent fleet in the Pacific. It is interesting to note that he describes himself as "an advocate of American leadership in the international movement for peace."

IN MEMORY OF BARON STERNBURG.

Washington, October 30.
 President and Mrs. Roosevelt, the Diplomatic Corps, many high officials of the State Department, Cabinet, and other Government offices, besides representatives of the Army and Navy, took part in a service held yesterday in the German Evangelical Church here in memory of the late German Ambassador, Baron Speck von Sternburg. The Rev. Menzel and the Rev. Roland Smith delivered addresses eulogising the late Ambassador as a man and a diplomatist.

THE CRISIS IN THE BALKANS.

RUSSIAN MINISTER MOLESTED.

Belgrade, October 28.
 The Russian Minister, M. Sergeieff, while returning last night from Semlin, on the Hungarian frontier, whither he had gone to meet his wife, who was coming from Vienna, was roughly molested by the Austro-Hungarian frontier police, who ransacked his baggage.

68,000 TROOPS ON THE FRONTIER.

Paris, October 28.
 A telegram from Rome to the Petit Journal states that according to the members of the Montenegrin mission which arrived in the Italian capital on Sunday, the Austrians have massed 68,000 men at the Bocche di Cattaro, on the frontier of Herzegovina and Montenegro, and the Austrian officers and officials have sent their wives and families away to Fiume and Zara out of danger.

By order of the authorities Montenegrin troops with guns are occupying frontier posts.

DRESDEN MUSIC AND ART NOTICES.

At the Central Theatre today (Reformation Day) there will be two performances. At 3.30 p.m., the Christmas play "Peter und Paul reisen ins Schlaraffenland" will be performed for the first time, at reduced prices. In the evening, at 8 o'clock, the sisters Wiesenthal will appear for the third time and the last performance of the October variety programme will take place. The prices in the evening are somewhat higher than usual.

Tomorrow the Christmas play will be repeated in the afternoon. In the evening the November variety programme—which includes a burlesque pantomime, "Susanna im Bade," Oriental dances by Mlle. d'Ertelle, and a one-act operetta, "Die süßen Grisetten"—will be produced. The ticket office will be open all day from 11 o'clock on both days.

A performance of sacred music will be rendered in the Roman Catholic part of the Garrison Church, Neustadt, on Sunday, November 29, at 3.30 p.m.

The I. chamber music concert of the Bachmann Trio—Herren Bachmann, Bärtich, and Stenz—will take place on Saturday evening next, at 7.30, at the Neustädter Casino, with the assistance of Herr Rokohl (viola). The programme will contain Schumann's quartet in E-flat, op. 47; Beethoven's trio in C-minor op. 103; and Brahms' quartet in G-minor op. 25. Tickets from H. Bock, Prager Strasse 9.

The Photographische Gesellschaft, an art publishing society in Berlin founded in 1862, has made arrangements which will render the large number of select works of art which the society has published accessible to the public on favourable terms. Yearly subscribers of 20 marks will receive really good examples of coloured facsimile engravings, photo-gravure and carbon reproductions. The artists represented will include Dürer, van Dyck, Gainsborough, Holbein, Filippo Lippi, Murillo, Raphael, Rembrandt, Reynolds, Feuerbach, Gebhardt, Klinger, Knaus, Leibl, Menzel, Thoma, Uhde, Leistikow, and Tadema. A handsome illustrated catalogue of the 70 works from which a choice can be made may be obtained from Emil Richter, Prager Strasse, the Dresden agent of the society, or it will be sent to any address on receipt of a written application. A complete collection of the year's productions by the society may be seen at the same establishment. (Continued on page 4.)

WEATHER FORECAST FOR TODAY

of the Royal Saxon Meteorological Institute.
 Southerly wind, dry, warm.