

THE ATHENÆUM

From the 5th of October the price of the ATHENÆUM has been THREEPENCE.

Thirty years ago, when the ATHENÆUM came into the hands of its present Proprietors, its price was Eightpence, and its contents, with advertisements, forty-eight columns. Convinced that the circulation of Literary Journals was restricted by high price, and that every advantage offered to the public would bring increase of circulation and authority, the Proprietors reduced the price one-half—to Fourpence. The experiment succeeded, and cheap Literary Journals became the rule.

The Proprietors have always held to the principle then proved. They have given to the public the benefit of every change in the law, increasing the size without increase of price, until the average has become double its former size—above ninety-six columns.

The Proprietors, taking advantage of the abolition of the Paper Duty, therefore resolved that from the 5th of October the price of the ATHENÆUM should be reduced to THREEPENCE.

Every Saturday, of any Bookseller or News-agent, Price THREEPENCE.
