SCHNIZER,

NOBILIS PAROECIAE NEOHVSAE

VIGILANTI PAROCHO,
MUSARUM PATRONO,
MUSICORUM MAGISTRO.

*N*o planè est, Rnde Dne, ita tua ipsius Vox nobis testata est. Qui te viderunt, (ij sunt tota nostra Civitas) ij scient; qui te non viderunt, huic programmati credent. Quid si etiam hi te videant? Minus credent, quia hujusmodi vocem in sene negabunt. Quid si verò audiant? Tunc ob vocem, senem te negabunt. Nam raro avis in terris, Senex Musicus; quem Aegyptij Sacerdotes per hieroglyphicam Cygni effigiem significabant: quippe quem omnes eo suavius modulari ferunt, quo magis in senium vergit. Hunc tu imitari perge, canta, vel ad mortem usq; latus. En, tibi ego materiam subministro, unde unde collectam, Ergo, inquis, nihil tuum, nihil non alienum offers. Hoc ipso, Rnde Dne, tibi placere, commendari tibi volo. De meo non possum, studui igitur, ut possem de alieno. Si namq; de arte, quam amas, hi auctores tibi commendantur, salva res est; ego de utilitate tibi commendabor, quia hos tuâ gratiâ collegi; his tu nunc patrocinare. Musica, ut audio, prater alias liberales artes, tibi olim ad dignitatem, in qua nunc es, multum patrocinata est, quo tu jure non vicissim ejusdem Patronus eris?

Fac ergo rogatus, id, quod debes facere, hos auctores à me benignè suscipe, quos nosti: tuere, quos potes: ama, quos soles. Deus tē
Opt. te suum Psalten remunerabitur, quando non fabulosus
Parnassus, sed ille tibi adeundus est mons, in quo beneplacitū
est Deo, habitare in eo: tunc demum & cantasse te gaudebis, & in aeternum cantabis. Quod tamen, ut serò fiat, Deum pre-cor, Tu interim vive, vale, canta. Rottenburgi ad Neccarum.

The image shows a page from a musical manuscript with five staves of music. Each staff begins with a treble clef and a common time signature (C). The notes are diamond-shaped, characteristic of early printed music. The lyrics 'Alleluia, ij' are printed below the notes. The first staff has three measures of music. The second staff has three measures. The third staff has three measures. The fourth staff has four measures. The fifth staff has four measures. The music is arranged in a single system across five staves. There are some decorative symbols like asterisks and crosses in the music. The paper is aged and yellowed.

Three sets of empty musical staves, each consisting of five lines. The staves are blank, with no notes or clefs. They are arranged vertically on the page.

The musical score is written on ten staves. It begins with a large, decorative initial 'Q' on the first staff. The notes are diamond-shaped, a characteristic of early printed music. The text is Latin, describing the characteristics of the saints. The score includes various musical notations such as clefs, time signatures (including a 3/2 time signature), and dynamic markings like 'p' (piano). There are also asterisks and other symbols interspersed within the musical lines.
