A sliver of the adjacent page is visible on the right edge. It shows handwritten musical notation in black ink, including staves with notes and clefs. The handwriting is in a historical style, likely from the 17th or 18th century. The page number '46' is faintly visible at the bottom of this section.
