

Table with columns for street names, addresses, and administrative details. The table is split into two main sections: the left half for streets 1-50 and the right half for streets 51-100. Each entry includes the street name, address ranges, and various codes for police districts, administrative offices, and schools.

