

Table with 2 columns: Left column contains a list of words or terms, and the right column contains their corresponding regional forms or dialectal variants. The text is very faint and difficult to read.

