

Prussia, 2, Lindengasse, 11 to 1.

Russia, 43, Wiener Strasse 11 to 1.

Bavaria, 32^b, Waisenhausstrasse 11 to 1.

Warehousing and Forwarding Agent.

J. Kohn, 4, Victoriastrasse.

Strangers who wish to have part of their Travelling Luggage stored for some time, or to have any kind of property forwarded to any place, may safely apply to this office.

Postal Regulations.

Besides the General Post-Office (in the Postplatz, at the end of Wilsdruffer Strasse), open from 7 a. m. till 7 p. m., there are eight Branch Offices: 10, Moritzstrasse — 48, Pillnitzer Strasse — 20, Christianstrasse — 34, Ammonstrasse — 29, Weisseritzstrasse — 11, Hauptstrasse — Leipsic Railway Station — 25, Bautznerstrasse.

About 50 Receiving boxes, besides, are fixed at different corners and places of the town. They are emptied nine times on every week-day; on Sundays only once in the forenoon, and once in the afternoon. Letters may be put into the boxes at the railway stations 10 minutes before the train's starting, or into the box of the mail attached to the train, up to the last moment. The rate of postage to be prepaid is $\frac{1}{2}$ Ngr. for every Loth ($\frac{1}{2}$ ounce), or fraction of half an ounce, for the town-district; and 1 Ngr. for any place within the German State, or German Austria.