Increpasti superbos: maledicti qui declinant a mandatis tuis.
Ipsi sunt [illegible] iusti & sancti in quibus est solus & non malitia spiritualis superba a quibus & abscondita sunt mandata tua & non concupiscunt voluntatem ut sic iusti quod iam iusti sibi sunt. Hos ergo increpat [illegible] per eos [illegible] et nihil aliud arguuntur in [illegible] hec maledictio [illegible] [illegible] non increpatio. Nam & primo in [illegible] ipsa [illegible] eos increpavit [illegible]
[illegible] in [illegible]. Deinde in Apostolis. Contestans eos esse iniustos et [illegible] [illegible] arguit de peccato, de iudicio, de iustitia. Deinde [illegible] doctores et nostro tempore [illegible] per zelosos [illegible] & religiosos. Sed quia solum increpat non ut convertat, quia sunt incredibiles & incorrigibiles & sponte declinant a mandatis eius, ideo sunt maledicti. Non enim [illegible] quod sponte ipsi declinant [illegible] [illegible] sensum [illegible] suam voluntatem [illegible] increpantur. Et non solum de [illegible] sed sunt arguentes [illegible] & opprobria [illegible] ignorantes aut malitiosos quia contra [illegible] eorum loquuntur & operantur. [illegible]

Aufer a me opprobrium & contemptum: quia testimonia tua exquisivi.
[illegible] multis modis [illegible] primo [illegible] non reddat opprobrium opprobrio [illegible]
[illegible] contemptum. Et hoc quia testimonia tua hec [illegible] in [illegible] [illegible] infra me extollerem oculos. Sic passus & hec [illegible] primo [illegible] ne sinas me [illegible] in iustitia tali opprobrio [illegible] sed in spiritu [illegible] me ut [illegible] sed esse [illegible] Tertio [illegible] [illegible] ut illi cessent me contemnere & exprobrare [illegible] gratia superbi desperant. Quarto [illegible] verius [illegible] omnis [illegible] in [illegible] quia testimonia tua exquisivi & omnia custodivimus. Neque enim redderet opprobrium sed & optavit ab illis auferri ne [illegible] & perirent. Quarto [illegible]
[illegible] Quasi dicat non sinas me [illegible] opprobrium & contemptum [illegible]
& verbi: quia tales timor vel terror scandalizat multos [illegible]. Et quod [illegible] intelligat [illegible] sequens versus non nihil [illegible].

Etenim sederunt principes & adversum me loquebantur. [illegible]
Contemptus sum superbis & opprobrium habetur ut [illegible] Quia multum repleta est anima nostra opprobrium abundantibus & despectio superbis contemptus. [illegible] principes [illegible] primo [illegible] & [illegible] omnes qui [illegible] non solum [illegible] sed & opprobrium [illegible] ab his qui sapientes sunt apud semetipsos. Deinde [illegible]
[illegible] ad [illegible] & contra eos [illegible] & [illegible]
[illegible] plurimi [illegible] ut falsi [illegible] non sumus
[illegible] Apostolus monuit [illegible] Nolite esse prudentes apud vosmetipsos.
[illegible] enim [illegible] privatum & proprie sape [illegible] vel plures seniores & regnantes [illegible] superbi [illegible] qui opprobrium & contemptum faciunt et maledicti declinant a mandatis [illegible] qui [illegible] & [illegible] sape. Nam [illegible] nobiscum sit [illegible] enim [illegible] & propria [illegible] veritas [illegible] omnium est, est [illegible] & liber. [illegible]
[illegible] veritas [illegible] est [illegible] proprie [illegible] non veritas sed mendacium. [illegible] enim veritas [illegible] ille in [illegible] veritas non est [illegible] ut dixi [illegible] proprius sensus & [illegible] sapere [illegible] [illegible] iustum sanctum [illegible] bonum appareat. Non enim [illegible]
