

Handwritten musical score on aged paper, featuring several staves with notes and rests. The notation includes treble clefs and various note values. The word "Tactus" is written in cursive on the first three staves of the musical section. The score is enclosed in a large bracket on the right side.