Otto von.

A handwritten musical score for a three-part setting (likely Organum) on four-line staves. The music consists of six systems of notes. The first system is labeled "Grave." The second system is labeled "Allegro." The third system is labeled "Largo." The fourth system is labeled "S." The fifth system is labeled "Allegro." The sixth system concludes with a flourish and is labeled "Patria felix". The notation uses various note heads and stems, typical of early printed music notation.
